Dear Friends,

Who could have imagined, when we welcomed you to our Annual Metropolitan Luncheon a year ago, that our world would completely transform just a few months into 2020. In any other year, before life turned upside-down by the COVID-19 global pandemic, December would have brought us together to honor our colleagues in support of Outreach's amazing work. This year would have marked our 39th Annual Metropolitan event. Though the continuing pandemic makes it impossible to gather in person for our traditional luncheon, Outreach, now in our 40th year helping New Yorkers, has remained steadfast, resolutely dedicated to our mission. Our work continues and is vital to assuring our communities' health and wellbeing. This year's virtual 39th Annual Metro Hope & Courage Campaign and virtual event highlights just that.

From Spring through Summer and well into the autumn months, the COVID-19 pandemic altered our world and our lives, but our staff courageously rallied, transforming our services to ensure that Outreach's doors - physical and virtual - remained safe and open. Demonstrating extraordinary compassion and determination to help our clients and communities navigate the crisis, within a week of New York on "Pause," our outpatient programs transitioned to virtual clinics providing tele-healthcare; our residential programs remained operational 24/7 ensuring a safe and therapeutic environment for the persons in our care; and our Outreach Training Institute remarkably converted to distance-learning, keeping aspiring health and behavioral health care clinicians on course to a brighter future.

Despite all of 2020's challenges - and incredibly so, considering the difficult environment - Outreach even achieved some extraordinary milestones. Our new Recovery Residence for Women in Brentwood opened to clients in January, with official ribbon cutting - socially distanced, with livestream offered via Facebook - several months later. In early 2020, Outreach began to provide outpatient services in Nassau County, as we assimilated the Roosevelt Educational Alcoholism Counseling Treatment Center (REACT) into the Outreach family. The new women's residence, along with our continued capacity in our residential and outpatient components throughout New York City and Long Island, affords Outreach an exceptional continuum of care for adolescents, adults and traditionally underserved client communities - so critical, particularly now. And, with our staff being key, Outreach was once again named 'One of the Best Companies to Work for in NY 2020.'

Outreach's achievements in all years, but this year most especially, are made possible by the generosity and commitment of our supporters. On behalf of the Outreach Board of Directors, our staff, and our clients, thank you, thank you, thank you, for sharing our pride, for standing with us during difficult times, and for continuing to help us make a difference in the lives of the people of New York. Best wishes for safe and healthy holidays and, as we welcome 2021, best of hopes for the new year.

Sincerely.

Debra Pantin
